Festival Players of Prince Edward County

The first show in the season is I'll Be Back Before Midnight. This show plays at Mt. Tabor Playhouse, a lovely converted country church turned theatre, in Milford.

I'll Be Back Before Midnight

By Peter Colley

A couple from the city rents an old farmhouse in the country. Their dream of quiet becomes a nightmare when they find out about a murder in the house and the vengeful ghost that is reported to stalk the night. Laugh-out-loud funny and scream-out-loud scary. Not recommended for children (or the faint of heart!).

The second show in the season is Tempting Providence which plays at Fields on West Lake, a beautiful refurbished barn, between Wellington and Bloomfield.

Tempting Providence

By Robert Chafe

Myra Bennet, a young British nurse, arrives on the rugged shores of Newfoundland in 1921. No roads, no electricity, no doctors for miles. She signed on for a year and stayed for a lifetime. A spell-binding tale of strength and heroism told with humour and elegant simplicity.

The evening performances for Tempting Providence play on the following dates: Jul. 26-30.

Our third show is Amelia, which will be playing underneath a grand tent, outdoors at the Waring House in Picton.

Amelia

By John Gray

Amelia Earhart rose to unimaginable heights, literally and figuratively. This new musical from the writer that brought us Billy Bishop Goes to War, re-imagines her meteoric rise from the 'girl next door' to the iconic first woman in flight. Inspiring, insightful and entertaining
