

Fantastical Friday Festival fundraiser frolic

Festival Players fill the barn

It was fun for all ages as the friendly folks at the Festival Players hosted a fun(d)raiser square dance/pig roast/pie auction at the Fields on West Lake on Friday evening. The musical entertainment by Sheesham & Lotus was of the old-time, toe-tappin', thigh-slappin' variety and the crowd of 130 could not help but fill the dance floor to hone their square dancing skills or do an old fashioned waltz. The evening was started with a delicious sit-down meal including pork roast and freshly harvested food which was promptly danced off before the pie auction. The hottest pie went to the contribution from Suzanne Pasternak and Bernie Gaw who entered a delectable apple pie that went to the highest bidder for a lip-smacking $40.

Sheesham & Lotus (above and right) open up a can of tasty tunes for the Festival Players fundraiser Square Dance & Pig Roast on Friday at the Fields on West Lake

PHOTOS: KATHLEEN SABYAN